Central Methodist College, Fayette, Mo., July 25-30, 2004

STUDENT APPLICATION

MO Quail Academy is a conservation training program for high school students just completing their freshmen or sophomore year. Twenty-five students are selected for the academy and will undergo extensive training in quail biology, ecology, and the human dimensions of wildlife conservation. Instruction will also be provided in leadership, public speaking, and critical thinking. No fees are charged for this program. Food, lodging, and transportation will be provided, however, students must arrange transportation to the Academy for registration and from the Academy upon completion.

- ▶ Members of the MO Quail Academy should possess a strong interest in wildlife and wildlife management.
- ▶ Applicants must be Missouri residents who are currently freshmen or sophomores with a GPA of 2.5 or higher, and complete a Hunter Education course before the Academy begins.
- ▶ After the Academy, each cadet will be expected to share their knowledge by giving at least three speeches or presentations on quail management, one to each of the following audiences: elementary students, secondary students, and adults.
- ▶ Applicants will be notified of selections by May 10, 2004.

TEACHER APPLICATION

MO Quail Academy is a conservation training program for high school students just completing their freshmen or sophomore year. Twenty-five students are selected for the academy and will undergo extensive training in quail biology, ecology, and the human dimensions of wildlife conservation. Instruction will also be provided in leadership, public speaking and critical thinking.

TEACHER OPPORTUNITIES: Missouri teachers are selected to serve as Covey Leaders chaperoning a covey of five students through the course. These teachers will learn about upland wildlife management and techniques for bringing conservation into their own classroom while earning up to two hours of graduate credit, free! Food, lodging, and interim transportation will be provided.

Responsibilities include supervision and coordination of your covey during all scheduled activities, and assisting them with their study and projects. Covey Leaders will share "after-hours" chaperon duties on a rotating basis.

To earn college credit, Covey Leaders must develop a course lesson plan based on information from the Academy that can be used in the courses they normally teach.

COST: There are no charges or fees. Teachers must arrange transportation to the Academy for registration and from the Academy upon completion.

TO APPLY: Complete the form below and attach a one-page essay telling us about yourself, your interests, and why you want to become a Covey Leader. Mail these to: Quail Unlimited, 382 NW Hwy 18, Clinton, MO 64735, (Fax: 660/885-7152).
